Announcement—For Constable.

We are authorized to announce the name of DENNIS O'LEARY for constable of Arcadia township, subject to the decision of the voters of said township at the coming general election.

We are authorized to announce the name of PAUL PATTON for constable of Arcadia township, subject to the decision of the voters of said township at the coming general election.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

See Bonanza's new advertisement on fourth page of this issue.

Slip the barber, is talking of establishing a barber-shop at Chester, Ill.

The carpenters are still at work on the new addition to Lopez's store.

Fire escapes have been placed in the Arcadia House as required by law.

It is said a horse was stolen on Main street on Wednesday of last week.

The frosts of the past few nights have begun to tell on all kinds of vegetation.

We are under obligations to Mr. A. J. Carby for a half bushel of very fine apples.

A lengthy telegraph operator has been helping us out on the "Local Brevities" this week.

Mr. Thos. Beard has been having an addition put to his residence in the north part of town.

Wild pigeons are flying over the Valley in great numbers. Ducks also are reported very plentiful.

The shingles on the roof of Jud Chambers' book store have been taken off and tin put on in their stead.

The dogs in town last night did considerable howling and barking, which was very annoying to sleepy people.

There were no jury trials at this term of the Circuit Court, and the Judge discharged the regular panel of petit jurors Tuesday afternoon.

J. H. Killalee, of Pilot Knob, had a man brought before Justice Dinger Saturday, for disturbing the peace. The man's fine and costs amounted to $12.45.

We know of a young man who will not be liable to sit around much for a while after his return from Edge Hill to-day. He is not used to riding horseback.

The front of the new Garner building has been painted, and the plasterers have about completed their work, and the building will soon be ready for occupancy.

The "devil" has been complaining because no good things have come to hand since he took editorial charge of this paper, and he proposes to resign immediately.

Mr. Tom Reel had his head rather severely cut, the other day, by falling rocks in one of the tunnels on Pilot Knob; but at present writing he is able to be on his feet.

Benton Huff, Sam Patton and Richard Goulding have been playing "hokey" for a week or two. Hereafter we intend publishing the names of all boys we hear of playing truant.

Jno. Burke, of Madison county, paid our sanctum a visit last Thursday, smoking a cigar of extraordinary dimensions, and when asked what brand it was, replied, "Dot vos a Yohanna segar."

Ghosts seem to be getting very plenty around this vicinity, as our colored roller boy, Charlie Phoebe, says he saw a headless man a few nights since—right in the central part of town; he did not wait to make a close examination, but "just sifted."

Mr. Chas. Kindle, who has been clerking in Mr. Jno. M. Moore's store for the past two years, has retired and Mr. Jas. Dixon has taken his place. Charlie is a pleasant and amiable young gentleman and an excellent clerk; his many friends will miss him from his customary place.

Capt. Zwart's apple orchard is no longer "trout" any more, as it is reported that "colored" boys, or a ghost is seen from either a crazy man moving about in the orchard until daylight, or anything about the orchard. We don't, but we do know that the ghost or crazy man's orchard wide berth.

We have not the slightest doubt but that our readers will like the great improvement in this paper to the fact that the editor is due Grand Jury and the "devil" is on the ground into his own hands, and, took this sec, has gotten up a "devilish" good paper.

DeBouaire's Parisian Exposition, which exhibited on the 18th, was very well attended, and the performances were good. The company is composed of a very nice lot of ladies and gentlemen. The leader of the band, Mr. D. H. Leverich, called on the Excelsior and said he would probably return shortly to spend the winter and send his boys to school here.

The new time table, No. 85, went into effect Sunday, Oct. 23d. There is but one change in time of the arrival of passenger trains, and that is in the "Arcadia Accommodation," which now reaches Ironton at 9:20 P. M. The numbers of all the trains are also changed; they are now all up in six hundreds. The numbers of the engines are also to be changed to correspond.

ATTENTION FARMERS.—$2.50 and $3.00 cash paid for chickens at the Arcadia House.

Having concluded to go into the grocery business, Mr. Jud. Chambers went to St. Louis Monday morning for the purpose of buying a complete stock of goods in that line.

FREE.—A hack will be run gratis three times a day between the Court House and the Arcadia Hotel, for the benefit of parties desiring to stop at the hotel during Court week.

Full stock of Embroidery, Laces, Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Buttons, Zephyr, Wool Hose etc., etc., at Mrs. Moser's Millinery Parlor, call and examine. Prices low. Stock Fresh.

W. H. Byers (Bonanza) has just received through his agents in New York and Philadelphia, a large invoice of fine goods from the Custom House. These were confiscated goods, and sold for non-payment of duties to the Government.

Our lady readers should call at once upon Mrs. M. I. Moser, at her Millinery Parlor, and examine her new and complete stock of Ladies' and Children's Hats, Bonnets, Plumes, Ribbons, Embroidery and Ladies' Furnishing Goods. All new, and lowest prices.

RELIGIOUS.—A semi-centennial celebration of the organization of the Whitewater Presbyterian Church, in Bollinger county, will be held next Saturday and Sunday. The services will begin Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and on Sunday an "all day meeting" will be held. The pastor of the church, Rev. E. P. Keach, hopes "that all who have been members, and all ministerial brethren who can conveniently do so, will be present," and says that "brethren from St. Louis are expected to be present and assist in the service." Members living near Whitewater are requested to take their dinners with them.

Personal.
Judge Kemper, of Des Arc, was in town Tuesday.
Dr. E. May, of Annapolis, was in town several days this week.
John D. Greason, Esq., and City Marshal Kalb, of Poplar Bluff, were in town this week.

Miss Nettie Schultz returned home Sunday from Kansas City, where she has been stopping the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Crumb returned to Ironton Sunday, after spending about ten days in visiting relatives at Troy, Mo.

Mr. G. T. Bartlett, of Poplar Bluff, was in Ironton Tuesday, and called around at the REGISTER office, but the "boss" wasn't in.

Tuesday morning the Rev. Jos. Marlett mounted the nag lately presented to him by the members of his church in that section and "struck out" for the west end of the county to fill his appointments.

Hon. M. L. Clardy and Judge Wm. Carter, of Farmington; Hon. Sam. Byrnes, of Jefferson county, and Judge L. F. Dinning, of Potosi, were among the prominent lawyers that arrived in Ironton Monday afternoon to attend Circuit Court.

A. T. Ake, Esq., who returned home again Monday morning, has given up trying to "buck against" the Arkansas ague. After having tried living in three or four different towns in that State, and being driven home three or more times on account of ill health, he has concluded not to go down there any more.

Just received at Mrs. Moser's Millinery Parlor, complete stock of Winter Hats, Bonnets, Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Notions, etc. Go and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. No trouble to show Goods. Prices low and goods new, and latest styles.

One Day at Preaching.

The Rev. Jos. Marlett is in charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Ironton, and preaches on the second and fourth Sabbaths of each month. On last Sabbath the reporter waited on his ministry, not only for general but for special reasons. In my early childhood I sat on the knees of his grandfather; in my early boyhood I sung for his grandfather, and in my early manhood preached him many a sermon; and now, in the days of gray hairs and dim eyes, I greet with pleasure a member of the family in the fourth generation in the ministry of reconciliation.

Bro. Marlett's text was in Romans, 8th chapter and verse. His introductory idea set out the sorrows and vexations of man's conditions here, and then he vindicated God and justly laid all the responsibility for these sorrows on ourselves. He then showed that although these afflictions are not removed from the righteous, yet great supports and compensations are given. The audience was small but attentive.

At night a very intelligent and orderly audience filled the Union Hall at Pilot Knob to hear Bro. Marlett. His text was in Romans 8th chapter and 1st verse. The discourse was evidently extempore, and whilst it was not so systematic as the morning service, it stayed by the text and abounded in good thoughts and received very close attention, a fact which speaks well for our neighbors.

Bro. Marlett bids very fair to make a Methodist preacher of the first class. He has a splendid physique, a noble voice, well cultivated; is an excellent singer; has the elements of a good education; is deeply in love with his work; and has a zeal as fiery as that of a Crusader, or the reporter forty years ago. Bro. Marlett should learn to speak on the Bronsonian system or he may break his voice. He will learn after awhile that Moderation is the daughter of Wisdom and the mother of Strength. It will always pay to hear him speak.

Free of Charge.
All persons suffering from Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs, are requested to call at the Pilot Knob Drug Store and get a Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of charge, which will convince them of its wonderful merits and show what a regular dollar-size bottle will do. Call early.

For the best Sewing-Machines, go to the Agency of the Genuine Singer, one door south of the REGISTER office, Ironton.

JAMES WELCH, Agent.

Political Speaking.

On the afternoon of the 23d Messrs. Clardy and Yancey addressed a mixed multitude at the Court House. Many of the leading men of the county were present, without regard to party, making altogether one of the most intelligent audiences ever assembled in the county.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Farrar, who introduced Mr. Clardy. The speaker humorously referred to the carelessness of people in respect to political affairs, and urged a greater interest in the matter and a strict adherence to nonparties. He charged that under Republican rule Government was a monopoly and the people were heritable property. He alluded to the gradual nature of the change in the character of our Government, so gradual as to escape general observation. He made an earnest protest against centralization. He claimed that there are but two parties, as the Green-backers makes no figure in the case. He congratulated the Democracy on the fact that, in the face of continued defeat in the national arena, it had fearlessly kept up the organization in every school district in the United States. He passed an act of amnesty for the Republicans for all acts done during the war, but made a vigorous attack on the national banking system as supported by the Republican party. He made a crusade against the New England States as containing the mass of the bondholders, and charged the crisis of 1873 on the Republican party. He attacked the tax on tobacco, and pleaded for the right of farmers to sell to whom they please, and showed that whilst the grain crops had increased the tobacco crop had diminished since 1870. He attacked the interstate commerce policy of the Republican party; he made a scathing review of the holding Republicans of Missouri; he attacked the railroad grants as made by Republican administrations in five years; he predicted the ruin of the Republican party on account of its reckless extravagance, and reviewed the reasons assigned for the recent Democratic triumph in Ohio, and claimed that it is the combined result of many causes, and predicted that the people of our country would revolutionize our Government peacefully as thoroughly as France was by war. In conclusion, he pledged himself to do all in his power to promote the interests of the people. Dr. Edwin May asked for reform in the matter of pensions. Mr. Clardy replied that efforts had been made in that direction, but showed the great difficulty in the way of reform in that direction.

Mr. Yancey was introduced, and showed the importance of the contest this year; he reviewed the Democratic nominations for State officers, and passed high encomiums on the nominees; he contrasted our present condition with what it was before the war; he referred to the days of the test oath in this State, and closed with an exhortation to vote the Democratic ticket punctually and straight.

The Circuit Court of Iron County.

October Term, 1882—Oct. 23. Present. Hon. John L. Thomas, Circuit Judge; Joseph Huff, Clerk; Wm. A. Fletcher, Sheriff. As Attorneys: Messrs. B. Zwart, Emerson & Edgar, J. H. Benton, of St. Louis; C. D. Yancey, of Piedmont.

Court opened at 10 o'clock A. M.

On motion of W. R. Edgar, J. H. Benton was enrolled as an attorney.

The Clerk read over the records of the last term for the approval of the Court. They were sustained as correct. It is as good as a course of lectures on legal practice to hear those records read and see how cases work along through the Court as if by the peristaltic motions of digestion.

At 10:20 the Grand Jury was called into Court.

In the case of Conlon vs. St. Louis Ore & Steel Co. the demurrer by defendant was overruled, and the Court suggests that perhaps it will be well for plaintiffs to amend petition to be allowed to prove the fact of consolidation, which was raised by the argument; and then came defendant and asked leave to file a motion to strike out part of petition, and leave to file the same was given.

In his charge to the Grand Jury, His Honor drew the line between misdemeanors and felonies, and showed that he had charge of both classes, and that they could not only examine into matters brought to them, but must diligently into other matters. He cautioned them against disclosing the secrets of the Grand Jury, and complained that by some means those secrets get out; and cautioned them against allowing parties to talk to them individually on the streets, and defined the duties of the foreman and showed that every witness coming before them must be sworn to secrecy. He warned them against affection and malice, both in themselves and prosecuting witnesses. He gave special instructions in regard to perjury, which he claims to be on the increase.

His Honor made some admirable remarks in regard to the loose mode of administering oaths, and urged reform. He called attention to the mode of summoning jurors. No one can ask for himself or friend a place on any jury. Carrying concealed weapons was adverted to fully and judiciously. Disturbances of the peace were adverted to, especially in connection with drunkenness. Dramshops came up for consideration. Bitters cannot be sold by the bottle without a dramshop license, by either a merchant or a druggist. The laws on fire escapes and the practice of medicine were also adverted to, and the duties of County Treasurer and Assessor. If the Assessor does not swear every man to the accuracy of his list he is liable to indictment.

In the close of the charge, His Honor urged system in the work.

Finished reading the records.

Dennis Dempsey was naturalized.
